

Functional requirements:

R 1. Allows to load the information, the selection is made through the computer's file system in a pop-up window and the information is loaded into the program.

R 2. Allows to visualize the information, the information can be visualized in a table with all the items.

R 3. Allows the user to select a letter and the information table will only display the departments starting with that letter.

R 4. Displays a pie chart where it determines the number of municipalities by type, the types are Municipality, Island and non-municipalized area.

Non-functional requirements:

R 1. The file to upload the information must be in csv format.